

☰ McFarlane & Dolan provide to the insurance industry a comprehensive review of Florida Law regarding personal injury, wrongful death and insurance claims. McFarlane & Dolan offer the most current case law decisions and statutory changes which effect personal injury, wrongful death and insurance claims in the State of Florida. McFarlane & Dolan offer a legal analysis regarding the legal elements of a claim, the damages recognized by Florida Law, a Statute of Limitations analysis and the legal defenses to the following claims:

- Airplanes
- Americans with Disability Act
- Asbestos Litigation
- Asset Protection
- Aviation Law
- Bad Faith Claims
- Bicycles
- Boats
- Chemical Poisoning
- Class Action Litigation
- Condominium Associations
- Construction Defects
- Defective Medical Products
- Defective Products
- Denial of Insurance Benefits
- Disability Insurance
- Dog Bites and Attacks
- Employment Discrimination
- Errors and Omissions Claims
- Homeowners Claims
- Hotel, Marina and Resort Claims
- Insurance Fraud
- Life and Health Insurance
- Liquor Liability
- Mall Litigation
- Maritime Claims
- Medical Malpractice
- Motor Vehicle Collisions
- Motorcycles
- Negligent Security
- No-Fault and Personal Injury Protection
- Nursing Home Abuse and Neglect
- Pedestrians
- Premises Liability
- Rental Car Claims
- Subrogation Claims
- Toxic torts
- Tractor Trailer Litigation
- Trains
- Uninsured Motorist Coverage
- Workers Compensation

McFarlane & Dolan are available to assist any insurance adjuster, claims personnel, or claims manager with any questions regarding Florida Law, without charge.

© Copyright 2004 McFarlane & Dolan. All Rights Reserved